

Welcome to Detroit Entertainers & Musicians News (Detroit EM News)
Empowering Detroit's Youth and Celebrating Local Talent

Detroit Entertainers & Musicians News (Detroit EM News), your premier online publication focused on showcasing the growth and achievements of Detroit's youth, established artists, and rising stars.

Since our launch in 2007, we continue to offer affordable web advertising options that uplift local artists and businesses while fostering education and creativity within our community.

Our Mission

At Detroit EM News, we strive to forge meaningful connections through storytelling and creative expression. We provide a platform for students to gain hands-on experience in various fields such as graphic design, journalism, photography, videography, and more. Our project-based program through Detroit EM News, L3C LLC, is committed to empowering the next generation of creative professionals.

What We Offer

Cost-Effective Web Advertising: Promote your products and services to a wide audience while supporting local talent.

Student Development: Our program enables students to develop essential skills and gain experience as graphic designers, junior reporters, photographers, videographers, volunteer ambassadors, and more.

Recognition and Encouragement: We celebrate students' academic and extracurricular accomplishments, nurturing their passions and creative pursuits in the performing arts and communications.

Why Support Us?

With a proud history spanning seventeen years of sharing the "Entertainer's Written Word," Detroit EM News transcends the role of a publication. We are a community supported by artists and local businesses who align with our mission.

By donating or advertising with us, you directly contribute to educational initiatives and create opportunities for secondary and post-secondary students to design your advertisements promoting on our content management website worldwide.
